BYLAWS

OF

ROSSMOOR COMMUNITY SERVICES DISTRICT PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS
FINANCING CORPORATION

(A Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation)

ARTICLE I

NAME, ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE,
PRINCIPAL OFFICE, SEAL

SECTION 1.01. Name. The name of this Corporation is Rossmoor Community Services District Public Improvements Financing Corporation (hereinafter called the "Corporation").

SECTION 1.02. Organization, Purpose and Use of Funds. The Corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law of the State of California (Title 1, Division 2, Part 2 of the California Corporations Code) for public purposes.

The specific and primary purpose for which the Corporation is formed is to render financial assistance to the Rossmoor Community Services District (the "District") (a special district of the State of California) by financing, refinancing, acquiring, constructing, improving, leasing, selling, or otherwise conveying property of any kind to the District. The activities of the Corporation shall be limited to the activities permitted by its Articles of Incorporation. No gains, profits or dividends shall be distributed to any of the directors or officers of the Corporation, and no part of the net earnings, funds or assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer or individual, or any person, firm or corporation, excepting only the District.

SECTION 1.03 Principal Office. The principal office of the Corporation shall be located at the principal executive offices of the District, wherever located from time to time.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 2.01. The Corporation shall have no members. Any action which would otherwise require approval by a majority of all members or approval by the members shall require only approval of the directors and all rights which would otherwise vest in the members shall vest in the directors.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

SECTION 3.01. Number of Directors, Term of Office. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of five (5) persons. The members of such Board of Directors shall be the persons serving from time to time as the members of the Board of Directors of the District.

SECTION 3.02. Organization Meeting. The first Board of Directors may at any time hold an organizational meeting at which the directors shall organize by electing from their number a President, a Vice President and a Secretary. In addition, the Board of Directors shall elect a Chief Financial Officer and may elect such subordinate officers as they may determine, none of whom need to be a director of the Corporation.

SECTION 3.03. Place of Directors' Meetings. Meetings of the directors shall be held at such place in the County of Orange, or elsewhere, as may be designated in the notice of meeting or by resolution of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3.04. Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors shall hold a regular meeting not less than once each calendar year. The Board of Directors shall by resolution fix the date, time and place of holding such meetings.

SECTION 3.05. Special Meetings. Except as otherwise provided by law, special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called from time to time by the President or by a written call signed by a majority of the Directors and filed with the Secretary. Each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at such place, either within or outside the County of Orange, as shall be designated in the notice of such meeting, insofar as not inconsistent with law.

SECTION 3.06. Notice of Meetings. All meetings of the Board of Directors shall be noticed, conducted and held in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State of California governing the noticing, conducting and holding of meetings of legislative bodies of local agencies.

SECTION 3.07. Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present, and either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. All waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any director who attends the meeting without protesting before or at its commencement about the lack of adequate notice.

SECTION 3.08. Quorum. Except as provided in Section 3.08 of this Article III, a majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In determining the presence of a quorum, all directors present, in person or by telephone, shall be counted. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, including, without limitation, those provisions relating to (i) approval of contracts or transactions in which a director has a direct or indirect material financial interest, (ii) appointment of committees, and (iii) indemnification of directors. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting.

SECTION 3.09. Adjournments and Adjourned Meetings. The Board of Directors may adjourn any regular, adjourned regular, special or adjourned special meeting to a time and place specified by the Board of Directors in accordance with law. If less than a majority is present at a meeting, a majority of those Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time.

SECTION 3.10. Conduct of Meetings. The President or, in his or her absence, the Vice President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3.11. Resignations and Vacancies. Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or to the Board of Directors, and, where such resignation would leave the Corporation without a duly elected director or directors in charge of its affairs, to the Attorney General of the State of California. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist in the event of the death, resignation or removal of any member of the Board of Directors of the District. If, for any reason, there shall not be five (5) members of the Board of Directors of the District for any period of time, then the resulting vacancy in the Board of Directors shall be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, whether or not less than a quorum, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the District.

SECTION 3.12. Compensation of Directors. No director shall be entitled to receive any compensation for serving as a director or an officer of the Corporation; provided, however, that directors shall be entitled to receive such per diem compensation and reimbursement of expenses in the same manner as directors receive compensation and reimbursement for services rendered as directors of the District Board of Directors.

SECTION 3.13. Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed by the vote of a majority of all directors or by the Board of Directors of the District for cause.

SECTION 3.14. Notice to and Attendance by the Board of Directors of the District. Notice of all meetings of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be given by the Secretary of the Corporation to the President of the Board of Directors, and to the Secretary of the Board of Directors, of the District.

SECTION 3.15. Use of Conference Telephones. Any director may attend any meeting of the Board of Directors, whether regular or special, by conference telephone or similar communication equipment, so long as all of the directors participating in the meeting can hear one another, and all such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

SECTION 3.16. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board, individually, or collectively, consent in writing to that action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as an unanimous vote of the Board of Directors. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 4.01. General Powers of Board of Directors. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business, property and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled by, the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.02 Indemnification. To the full extent permitted by law, the Board of Directors hereby authorizes indemnification by the Corporation of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the Corporation, and who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding (including attorneys' fees), if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful and, in the case of an action by or in the right of the Corporation, acted with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

SECTION 5.01. Number and Qualifications. The officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Chief Financial Officer and such subordinate officers, including one or more assistant secretaries and assistant financial officers, as the Board of Directors may elect from time to time. Only directors shall be qualified to hold the office of President or Vice President, but the Board of Directors may elect any person, whether or not a director of the Corporation, to hold the office of Secretary or Chief Financial Officer or any subordinate office.

SECTION 5.02. Election, Term of Office. Each officer shall be elected by the Board of Directors and shall hold office until his or her successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until the death, resignation or removal of such officer.

SECTION 5.03. Resignations. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or to the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

SECTION 5.04. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these Bylaws for regular election to such office.

SECTION 5.05. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and shall have general supervision over the business of the Corporation, subject, however, to the control of the Board of Directors. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. The President may sign and execute, in the name of the Corporation, deeds, mortgages, leases, bonds, contracts and other instruments duly authorized by the Board of Directors, and generally shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to such office by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 5.06. Vice President. At the request of the President or in case of his or her absence or disability, the Vice President shall perform all duties of the President and, when so acting, shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all restrictions upon, the President. In addition, the Vice President shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to that office by the Board of Directors or the President.

SECTION 5.07. Secretary. The Secretary shall:

(a) Certify and keep at the office of the Corporation, or at such other place as the Board of Directors may order, the original or a copy of these Bylaws, as amended or otherwise altered;

(b) Keep at the office of the Corporation, or at such other place as the Board of Directors may order, a book of minutes of all meetings of the directors, recording therein the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice thereof given, and the proceedings thereat;

(c) See that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law;

(d) Be custodian of the records and seal of the Corporation;

(e) Exhibit at all reasonable times to any director, upon application, these Bylaws and minutes of the meetings and proceedings of the directors of the Corporation; and

(f) In general, perform all duties of the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to such office by the Board of Directors or the President.

SECTION 5.08. Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer shall receive and have charge of all funds of the Corporation and shall disburse such funds only as directed by the Board of Directors. The Chief Financial Officer shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Chief Financial Officer and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to such office by the Board of Directors or the President.

SECTION 5.09. Subordinate Officers. Subordinate officers shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors or the President.

ARTICLE VI

DISSOLUTION

SECTION 6.01. The Corporation shall not be voluntarily dissolved except by approval of the Board of Directors of the District. In the event of dissolution of the Corporation in any manner and for any cause, after the payment or adequate provision for the payment of all of its debts and liabilities, all of the remaining funds, assets and properties of the Corporation shall be paid or distributed to the District.

ARTICLE VII

GENERAL

SECTION 7.01. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the twelve-month period beginning on each January 1 and ending on the last day of the next succeeding December, except the first fiscal year which shall run from the date of incorporation of the Corporation to December 31, 1998.

SECTION 7.02. Execution of Documents. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances; and unless so authorized by the Board of Directors, no officer, agent or other person shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or to any amount.

SECTION 7.03. Inspection of Bylaws. The Corporation shall keep in its principal office the original or a copy of these Bylaws, as amended or otherwise altered to date, certified by the Secretary, which shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times during office hours.

SECTION 7.04. Annual Report. The annual report referred to in Section 6321 of the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law of the State of California is expressly dispensed with.

SECTION 7.05. Ralph M. Brown Act. To the extent required by law, the Corporation shall comply with the provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act, Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the California Government Code, commencing with Section 54950 (the "Brown Act"). In the event such provisions of the Brown Act conflict with any section of these Bylaws, the Brown Act shall be controlling.

ARTICLE VIII

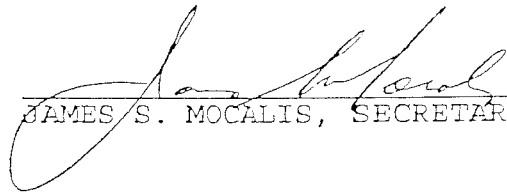

AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

SECTION 8.01. With the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Rossmoor Community Services District, any of those Bylaws may be amended or repealed, and new Bylaws may be adopted, by vote or written consent of the Board of Directors.

SECRETARY'S CERTIFICATE

The undersigned hereby certifies that the undersigned is the Secretary of the Rossmoor Community Services District Public Improvements Financing Corporation, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation; that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the Eylaws of said Corporation; and that said Eylaws are in full force and effect as of the date hereof.
